ABSTRACT

Clinic of pratama mitra in administering the program , especially for outpatients are still using manual administration . For that it is necessary a thought about the steps the development of systems that utilize computer technology as a tool in completing administrative tasks at the pendftaran outpatient services , so that each job can be completed efficiently and effectively.

This text discusses the outpatient information system in klnik pratama Wonosari partners. This application is essentially serves to facilitate the clinic manager perform data processing in the clinic and allows patients to obtain service information.

This system is useful to help manage data outpatient clinic pratama partner, which is still done manually became computerized.

Keywords: Outpatient, Patient, Php, Mysql